BEREAN BAPTISTS.

Sunday School Convention at Compton Hill Church.

The Berean Baptist Sunday-school convention met at Compton Hill Baptist church, last Sunday. Brother J. C. Carter made the welcome address, and Miss Lucille M. Arnold, of Kirkwood, responded as follows: "Brother President, Members, Officers and friends of the B. B. S. S. Convention—The ever-swinging pendulum of time has brought about this occasion upon which I find myself without adequate words to express our most profound gratitude in response to the very cordial welcome extended us. We are here, and accept every courtesy extended. We come this afternoon representing the B. B. S. S. convention. We have left our various fields of labor, and come to this place to bring greetings. Our objects and aims are the highest of any institution on earth—to glorify God and help to build up His kingdom. In our various fields, by the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we are striving to instruct and train those in whose hands the future destiny of the church shall fall. May our gathering here be beneficial to all, and may we repay this courtesy shown us by properly conducting ourselves during our stay here. In the behalf of the delegates and members of the B. B. S. S. convention, thus assembled, I tender our profound thanks to Compton Hill Sunday-school for the hearty welcome given us. May God's choice blessings rest upon this school, and may much good be accomplished." The papers read and songs rendered were excellent beyond measure. Likewise several members gave short and pointed remarks respecting the noble work of the church Sabbath-school.

LINCOLN INSTITUTE.

The following item appears in the Jefferson City State Tribune, March 27th:

President W. H. Council, of the Alabama State College for Negroes, was the guest of President B. E. Allen, of Lincoln Institute, Saturday. He was very much gratified at what he saw and complimented the president on the excellent showing the school is making.

The president goes to Baltimore next week to deliver an address before the Association of Negro College Presidents of this country.

Lincoln Institute will make a creditable exhibit at the World's Fair. Friends of the city are invited to come out and see the exhibit before they send it Wednesday.

President Allen has secured Tuesday, July 12th, as Lincoln Institute Day, at the World's Fair. Friends will please postpone their visit there until that time.

All visitors to the school commend the students on the very neat appearance of their rooms, and the school on the general neatness of things.

The many graduates, patrons, and friends of Lincoln Institute will heartily appreciate President Allen's successful efforts in securing "Lincoln Institute Day" at the St. Louis exposition, and it goes without saying that in every possible way they will cooperate to make that day one of the "Days" of the fair.

The Woman's Club.

The St. Louis Woman's Club, with Mrs. S. P. Vachon, as president, and Mrs. M. A. Cannon as chairman of the executive committee, is moving steadily, though quietly, along in its noble work of charity and enlightenment.

Within the past few months this club, without any flourish of trumpets, has managed for the benefit of the "Charity Ward" at the Provident hospital, a sum of more than fifty dollars, and has at the present time a considerable amount still remaining in its treasury for the credit of the "Charity Ward."

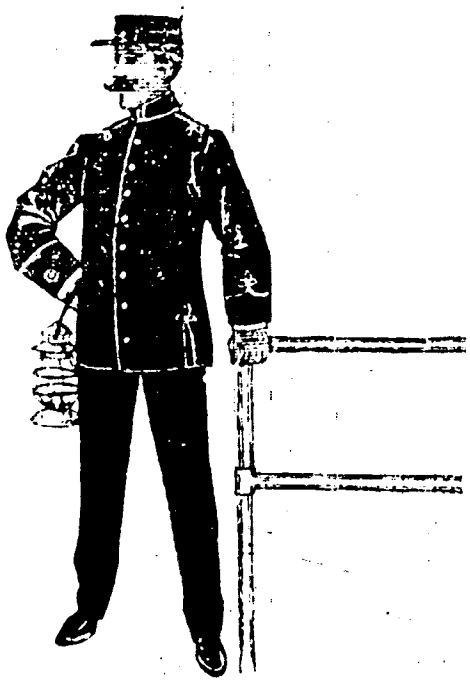

The order was given last Monday for the whitening and thorough cleansing of the apartment used as the ward, and the club intends to use every effort to the end that the "Charity Ward" of the Provident hospital shall become a model of cleanliness and comfort, and a haven of rest to those who may for a time be domiciled within its walls. Let all good people, who are charitably disposed, join with the Woman's club in its noble endeavor, remembering that charity, like mercy, flows to those who give, as well as to those who receive.

A MEMBER.

A New Company.

Walter Farrington and James Wright, at 308 Channing avenue, and Dr. Leonard, veterinary dentists, clipping, breaking and styling horses. He is an expert at his business. Mr. James Wright is a coal dealer, a most polite and good man. He takes delight in sending coal to Aunt Hager's children. Yet he has more white customers than our children. Don't fail to call on him. The firm of Farrington & Wright, 308 North Channing avenue.

A company is to be organized to build a model tenement house in St. Louis.

PULLMAN BOYS.

Mr. Will Potts, chief cook on the Mountain, is food-bound in Texas.

Dave Harris says he is still getting the money. Business is picking up.

Bob Pedway is still holding his same old run. He still ranks as a top-notch.

Jokey Hamilton, who was suffering from consumption in England, died March 1.

Mr. J. Lewis, of 1223 Lucas avenue, was cut off from his regular run to California by a big snow-storm.

Mr. Wheeler says the "Only Way" run is better than down in Bingham. He isn't mountaineering any more.

The boys running east are unable to go through on their runs on account of the floods, being cut out at various points.

Parks Dilliard, the old reliable, is still having his troubles. Having just lost his wife, he is now looking for his youngest baby to die. Regrets.

In the past 15 days quite a number of the boys have had their names placed on the new roll as porters, just going into the service.

Mr. Henderson Skinner met up with bad luck the other day while carving a roast on his car. The train struck a curve and cut off the ends of two of his fingers.

Knights Templar, Easter service, Central Baptist church, Easter Sunday, 3 p. m. Everyone will be in the Easter Monday, at Masonic Temple, for inspection at Knights Templar hall.

Guest of honor at Knights Templar hall, Most Puissant Sovereign Grand Commander of United States and Canada Scottish Rite Masons. Don't fail to meet him.

HELP FIND HIM!

Elijah or William Hamilton's Mother, of Indianapolis, Wants to Know Where He Is.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 16, 1904. To Whom It May Concern:

I, Mrs. E. Hamilton, would like to know if you could inquire and give me any information as to the whereabouts of Mr. Elijah or William Hamilton. He used to be a member of the Methodist church, but perhaps he has changed his denomination, and belongs to the Baptist or some other church. He was a porter on a train running from St. Louis to Texas. His address was 2629 Luyas avenue. His wife's name was Emma Hamilton. I would like for you to do your best in trying to find him, as I am his mother, and have not heard from him for a year or two, and would like to hear from him. Please assist me in finding him, and the Lord will reward you. Before he left Indianapolis he belonged to Couburn Street Baptist church, and a brother to Rev. John Preston.

Please let me know as soon as possible. Very respectfully,

MRS. E. HAMILTON,
1019 Hamilton Avenue,
Indianapolis, Ind.

DEATH

Has Again Visited the Home at 4024 Finney Avenue.

Last Saturday Mrs. Hayes passed into rest. She leaves a loving husband, two daughters, four sons and many friends to mourn her loss. May she rest in peace. She was buried last Tuesday from the Centennial church, Wash and Elliott avenue.

Death Ends Their Career.

Mrs. Lefton, of 3972 Finney, died Tuesday of heart failure.

Mrs. Emma Harris, of 1924 Finney avenue, died last Saturday, and was buried last Monday morning.

Mr. James Williams, step-son of Mr. Jeff Smith, died last Friday, March 25, and was buried from his residence, 1203 Morgan street. He was a member of the Buffaloes and was buried by the order. He leaves a step-father, uncle and many friends to mourn his loss.

American Eagle Wallpaper Co.

The Douglass hall has been papered and frescoed. The work was done by Mr. R. E. C. Sydnor & Son. It is completed, and reflects credit upon the company of Sydnor & Son.

Spring is coming, and with it house-cleaning. If you want your rooms prepared, give him a call. Residence, 3957 Finney avenue.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Mr. Haley, Uncle Sam's efficient post office clerk, is the first to form a box party and secure tickets for the great society event.

Tickets for the Odson entertainment, April 18, are now on sale at Harris & Mosby's drug store; also at the People's drug store.

Capridge's World's Fair Orchestra will furnish music for the occasion. It would be worth the admission fee just to hear the music they will play. Following are some reasons why you should attend the Odson on the 18th:

Because it is the annual high-class entertainment which the Y. M. C. A. gives each year; it is in a first-class playhouse, visited by first-class people, in a first-class locality; the company has studied hard, is well trained and can entertain you; you will be assisting in paying for a building, equipping a gymnasium and establishing a library; you will meet your friends there and see St. Louis society in their royal robes.

Pickett's Headache Powders give instant relief. 2661 Lawton avenue.

NEW JERSEY BUILDING. Ford's old tavern, at Morristown, which at one time during the war of the revolution was Gen. Washington's headquarters, is being reproduced on the World's fair grounds as New Jersey's state building. The state has already appropriated $100,000 for a display at the exposition, and an additional appropriation is expected. Her industrial and educational exhibits will be as interesting in their way as the old Ford tavern is in the state's history. The commission will spend $20,000 on the reproduction of the building. The famous men of early days who were sheltered by the old tavern include Alexander Hamilton, Lafayette, Kosciuszko, Israel Putnam and Philip Schuyler.

CONNECTICUT BUILDING. The building for the state of Connecticut is designed on colonial lines in accordance with the directions of the commission. It is intended to represent as nearly as possible the home of a Connecticut gentleman of the early nineteenth century. The entrance is through a ten foot entrance hall, which is finished in white enamel. An elliptical hallway into a center hall 20x38 feet, well will form a gallery about the center with wide double stairway beyond. Both these halls will be paneled to the ceiling with colonial woodwork, finished in white enamel. An elliptical hallway into a center hall 20x38 feet, well will form a gallery about the center with wide double stairway beyond. Both these halls will be paneled to the ceiling with colonial woodwork, finished in white enamel.

PENNSYLVANIA BUILDING. Pennsylvania's building, fronting on the state esplanade, will stand east of the Iowa and Mississippi buildings and south of the Illinois building. The exterior measurements are 226 by 195 feet. It is to be of classic design, constructed of staff and plaster and be finished with native woods and marbles. On each end of this building will be spacious porches lending a colonnade effect.

DEATH OF MRS. EMMA TURNER SUTTON.

Mrs. Emma Turner Sutton departed this life, after a short illness of consumption, at her residence, 2814 Montgomery, Friday, March 25, 1904, at 10 o'clock a. m. She leaves to mourn her loss a husband, William Sutton, and a sister, Mrs. Charles W. Prentice, and a host of friends. She was buried from the Metropolitan A. M. E. Zion church, of which she was a member, Twenty-sixth and Morgan streets, Sunday, March 27. The services were under the auspices of the True Reformers, of which she was a member, also of the stewardess board of the church. Rev. Jones, pastor of the church, officiated. The floral offerings were profuse. She was buried in the family lot of her sister, at Greenwood cemetery.

NOTICE.

WANTED—A girl to do clerical and domestic work. One who can write a good hand. The office hours will be from 8 o'clock to 6 p. m., except Friday, on which the hours will extend from 12 m. until 9:30 p. m. She will also be expected to collect when asked. Call at The Palladium Office, 2617 Lawton avenue.

Grand Easter Ball.

The Magnolia Social Club will give their first Easter ball on Easter Monday, April 4, 1904, at True Reformers' hall, to which their many friends and the public are invited. Refreshments will be served by the managers of the Orphans' Home. Music by the Great Western Band. W. D. Flowers, leader. Admission 35 cents.

TWO SOULS.

With But a Single Thought, Two Hearts That Beat as One.

Mr. Jeff. Smith and Miss Mamie McQueen were married on March 24. After a lapse of four years, friends and money could not compensate Mr. Smith, and he filled the vacant place in his heart with a bride.

We congratulate the lady upon her choice, and we extend the same to Mr. Smith.

We hope their journey through life will be strewn with flowers, and that they will always ascend the hill of prosperity and never meet a friend coming down.
